

Janet Napolitano
Governor

Office of the Governor

* CYBER SECURITY DAY *

WHEREAS, many citizens of Arizona use the Internet to keep in contact with family and friends, manage their finances, buy goods and services, and procure information; and

WHEREAS, the primary and secondary schools of Arizona use the Internet to enhance the education of our youth by providing them access to online educational and research materials; and

WHEREAS, the use of information technology at institutions of higher education is integral in teaching and learning, research and discovery, and outreach and service; and

WHEREAS, Arizona companies use information systems and networks to manage their businesses and expand their customer reach; and

WHEREAS, critical infrastructure sectors are increasingly reliant on information systems to support financial services, energy, telecommunications, transportation, health care, and emergency response systems; and

WHEREAS, Internet users and the information infrastructure face an increasing threat of attack by viruses and other malicious code; and

WHEREAS, there are several state government and private security organizations banding together as the Arizona Security Round Table to communicate an important security message to assist the citizens of Arizona; and

WHEREAS, citizens of Arizona play an important role in securing cyberspace;

Now, therefore, I, Janet Napolitano, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim October 31, 2004 as:

* CYBER SECURITY DAY *

in the State of Arizona and encourage all Arizona citizens to learn about cyber security and put that knowledge to use in their homes, schools and workplaces.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Arizona

Janet Napolitano

GOVERNOR

DONE at the Capitol in Phoenix on this twenty-second day of October in the year Two Thousand and Four and of the Independence of the United States of America the Two Hundred and Twenty-ninth.

ATTEST:

Janice K. Brewer
Secretary of State
